Helen: "...we will ask what the problem is, and what is the answer to it."

Problem: You have denied the Love of your life because you have denied your Self.

Answer: Accept him back, and you will recognize your Self again. He represents your Self to you. He is your healing and your salvation. He comes as a "thief" to steal away your "sins". He comes as a Savior, to save you from your false ideas of what you are. He comes as a Son of God, because that is what he is, along with you. You need him now, but his need for you is as great as yours. Together you can save the world. Alone, he cannot fulfill his function any more than you can. Deny him not. He stands for you. What he represents is God's gift to you and to him. Take it of him, and all the world will be saved.

"See me, then, who comes to save you. I stand for your holiness, and your holiness is the holiness of God. The cost of denying this gift is hell. The answer to your receiving it is Heaven."
