

A Course in Miracles Easter Prayer

This is our Easter time, and we would keep it holy. We will not defend ourselves, because the Son of God needs no defense against the truth of his reality. The song of Easter is the glad refrain the Son of God was never crucified. We lift up our eyes together, not in fear but faith, for in our vision will be no illusions, only a pathway to the open door of Heaven, the home we share in quietness and where we live in gentleness and peace, as one together. Our hearts are filled with love and gratitude for our brother Jesus, who walked the way to truth and shows us the way past dark illusions to the light of truth. In Jesus' eyes my loveliness is so complete and flawless that he sees in it an image of his Father. I become the symbol of his Father here on earth. To me he looks for hope, because in me he sees no limit and no strain to mar my beautiful perfections. The risen Christ is a symbol of the Son of God's forgiveness on himself; the sign he looks upon himself as healed and whole. Easter is the time of our salvation as we celebrate holiness as the truth of all our brothers and sisters. I look on my holy brother and offer him the gift of lilies, the white and holy sign the Son of God is innocent, and let his innocence light the way to the truth of what I am. We are one Self. Our perfect unity with all Creation makes change in us impossible. We are one Self; secure in light, joy and peace. It is our identification with this Self that resurrects our mind from dreams of death into Eternal Life. Amen.

Ref. T.20.I, II; M.23.5:5-7